The First city troop of Philadelphia, which was dispatched at un early hour Tnesday morning to the scene of the reported outbreak at Eckley found authing for it to do when it reached nothing for it to do when it reached that place about one o'click Tuesday afternoon. Several hyadred minera Stewart and Private Secretary Beitres have been on duty ulmost constantly. Gen. Golin will keep a close watch on the funerals and will prepare to suppress any disorders. Should the miner were roughly handled, and the miners and operators adjust their differences at Thesday's conference, the troops, with the exception of a battailion and a troop of eavalry will be withdrawn. The First brigade la still held in readness, but it is thought there that all danges of another outbreak is passed and no more troops will be needed.

The men who showed a disposition to continue were roughly handled, and the mine superintendent, fearing trouble, wired to Gen. Golin for troops. He also sent word to Drifton and 70 deputies from that place and Roan Junction, acar by, were sent over. They kept themselves ander cover at Eckley, however, awaiting developments. You will find the same man vascillating. osciliating ta his opinion from dejec tion to exuberance, and If he be very mercurial is his temperament it will depend very much on which way the let all those who are in the affirmative say "Aye," and those who are in the negative say "No." While there would be handreds of thousands who would be handreds of thousands who would be highly say that the say "Aye," and those who are in the negative say "No." While there would be handreds of thousands who would be handreds of thousands who would be highly say a life of pride, a life of pride. answer in the nflirmative, there would the negative, and because of the greater number who have sorrow and mis fortune and trouble the "Noes" would have it. The answer t shall give will be different from either, and yet it will commend itself to ail who hear me this as the right answer. If you ask "Is life worth living?" I answer, It all depends upon the kind of life you

In the first place, I remark that a life of mere money-getting is always a fail-ure, because you will never get as much as you want. The poorest people in this country are the millioneires. There ls not a selssors grinder in the streets of New York or Brooklyn who is not so anxious to make money as these men who have piled up for funes year after year in storeliouses, in government securities, la tenement houses, in whole city blocks. You ought to see them jump when they hear the fire bell ring. You ought to see them lu their ex-citement when a bank explodes. You ought to see their ngitation whea there ls proposed a reformation in the tariff. Their acroes tremble like inrp strings, but no music in the vibration.
